11 October 2020	The Parable of the Great Banquet	Green	God invites us to the Heavenly Banquet!
Bible verse: - Luke 14:15-24
This parable tells of a person who got ready a feast, a banquet, and invited many to come to it. Those invited in the first place did not come. The man sent the invitation to a wider group of people. That wider group of people is us. The host of the banquet is God. All we must do is accept the invitation to God's banquet and turn up. Some have done this already – they have accepted the invitation to be a part of God's Kingdom. Others have not or are yet to. Let's pray that as part of God's Kingdom and as God uses us to invite others to the Heavenly Banquet that their hearts will be open to accepting God's gracious reaching out to them.
